AREA MANAGERS, HEALTH AND RESOURCE MANAGEMENT
eRMS AREA FIELD COUNCIL REPRESENTATIVES

SUBJECT: DOL Revisions to the Family and Medical Leave Act

On November 17, 2008, the DOL released the final revisions to the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA), which includes the new rules defining when servicemember leave may be taken by eligible employees. The revisions are effective on January 16, 2009. Attached is a copy of the revised DOL WH-1420, "Notice for Employees of Rights Under FMLA", Employee Rights and Responsibilities under the Family and Medical Leave Act, which should be posted prior to January 16, 2009.

Some of the more significant revisions to the regulations are:

The new regulation requires employers to notify employees if their certifications are incomplete or insufficient and give them the opportunity to cure any deficiency.

The new regulation requires employees to follow the employer's usual and customary call-in procedures for reporting an absence, absent unusual circumstances.

A Physician's Assistant is included in the list of Health Care Providers.

A son or daughter is broadly defined and is not subject to the FMLA definition limiting coverage when a child is 18 or older.

In order to ensure the Postal Service's compliance with newly imposed regulatory requirements and streamline the FMLA designation process, the fulfillment center will discontinue the use of the PUB 71 and the WH-380 within the FMLA packet as of January 16, 2009. The WH-380 will be replaced by the WH-380-E "Certification of Health Care Provider for Employee's Serious Health Condition" or WH-380-F "Certification of Health Care Provider for Family Member's Serious Health Condition," whichever is appropriate for the FMLA request. The PUB 71 will be replaced by the DOL WH-381, "Notice of Eligibility and Rights & Responsibilities." However, due to technical issues, we will not be able to include the WH-381 in the FMLA packet until some time in late March. Consequently, we have notified the FMLA coordinators that they will be responsible for mailing out the WH-381 to employees during this interim period. Most of the FMLA response letters currently in use will be replaced by the new WH-382 "Designation Notice".

The WH-381 and WH-382 as well as the WH-384, "Certification of Qualifying Exigency for Military Family Leave" and WH-385, "Certification for Serious Injury or Illness of Covered Servicemember for Military Family Leave" will be mailed directly from the local FMLA Office until eRMS and the Fulfillment Center are upgraded to provide the new forms.

If you have any questions, please contact Anna Armstrong.

Notice to the EMPLOYER INSTRUCTIONS to the EMPLOYER: The Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) provides that an employer may require an employee seeking FMLA leave due to a serious injury or illness of a covered servicemember to submit a certification providing sufficient facts to support the request for leave. Your response is voluntary. While you are not required to use this form, you may not ask the employee to provide more information than allowed under the FMLA regulations, 29 C.F.R. § 825.310. Employers must generally maintain records and documents relating to medical certifications, recertifications, or medical histories of employees or employees' family members, created for FMLA purposes as confidential medical records in separate files/records from the usual personnel files and in accordance with 29 C.F.R. § 1630.14(c)(1), if the Americans with Disabilities Act applies.

SECTION I: For Completion by the EMPLOYEE and/or the COVERED SERVICEMEMBER for whom the Employee Is Requesting Leave INSTRUCTIONS to the EMPLOYEE or COVERED SERVICEMEMBER: Please complete Section I before having Section II completed. The FMLA permits an employer to require that an employee submit a timely, complete, and sufficient certification to support a request for FMLA leave due to a serious injury or illness of a covered servicemember. If requested by the employer, your response is required to obtain or retain the benefit of FMLA-protected leave. 29 U.S.C. §§ 2613, 2614(c)(3). Failure to do so may result in a denial of an employee's FMLA request. 29 C.F.R. § 825.310(f). The employer must give an employee at least 15 calendar days to return this form to the employer.

SECTION II: For Completion by a UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE ("DOD") HEALTH CARE PROVIDER or a HEALTH CARE PROVIDER who is either: (1) a United States Department of Veterans Affairs ("VA") health care provider; (2) a DOD TRICARE network authorized private health care provider; or (3) a DOD non-network TRICARE authorized private health care provider INSTRUCTIONS to the HEALTH CARE PROVIDER: The employee listed on Page 2 has requested leave under the FMLA to care for a family member who is a member of the Regular Armed Forces, the National Guard, or the Reserves who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy, is otherwise in outpatient status, or is otherwise on the temporary disability retired list for a serious injury or illness. For purposes of FMLA leave, a serious injury or illness is one that was incurred in the line of duty on active duty that may render the servicemember medically unfit to perform the duties of his or her office, grade, rank, or rating.

A complete and sufficient certification to support a request for FMLA leave due to a covered servicemember's serious injury or illness includes written documentation confirming that the covered servicemember's injury or illness was incurred in the line of duty on active duty and that the covered servicemember is undergoing treatment for such injury or illness by a health care provider listed above. Answer, fully and completely, all applicable parts. Several questions seek a response as to the frequency or duration of a condition, treatment, etc. Your answer should be your best estimate based upon your medical knowledge, experience, and examination of the patient. Be as specific as you can; terms such as "lifetime," "unknown," or "indeterminate" may not be sufficient to determine FMLA coverage. Limit your responses to the condition for which the employee is seeking leave.
