Dear Mr. Wevodau:

On May 16, 1985, we met to discuss the above-captioned grievance at the fourth step of our contractual grievance procedure.

The issue in this grievance is whether a part-time flexible (PTF) employee is guaranteed four hours of work or pay when prior to clocking out, the PTF is told to return to work after two hours.

During our discussion it was mutually agreed that the following would represent a full settlement of this case:

When a part-time flexible employee prior to clocking out, is told to return after two hours, that employee must be given another minimum guarantee of two hours work or pay.

Please sign and return the enclosed copy of this letter as your acknowledgment of agreement to settle this case.

Sincerely,

Carolyn M. Webb
