Dear Mr. Burrus:

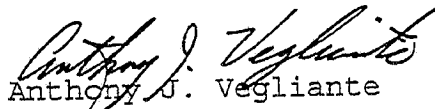

This is in response to your correspondence dated August 30, 1995, in which you expressed concern, because it is your belief, that Postal Data Centers do not have an automated or manual system to compensate TE's for grievance settlements which involve compensation.

Your concern is for naught, as the Postal Data Center does in fact, have a system in place for the processing of grievance settlements which involve compensation for TE employees.

According to the PDC, a manual system is in place, and grievance settlements which involve compensation for TE's are processed accordingly.

If anything out of the ordinary develops, please notify my office and we will handle it on a case by case basis.

Sincerely,

Anthony J. Vegliante

Dear Tony:

I am informed that the Postal Data Centers do not have an automated or manual system to compensate TEs for grievance settlements thereby delaying compensation for such employees. In that TEs are governed by the provisions of Article 15, the parties envisioned that grievance settlements would require compensation of such employees.

I request that your office determine the procedures implemented by the PEDC and advise of your findings, and changes if necessary.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

William Burrus
Executive Vice President
